After Your Move

A practical checklist for the first days in your new home.

Start With the Essentials

- [ ] Locate medications and important personal items.
- [ ] Set up basic bathroom supplies.
- [ ] Make the beds before everyone is exhausted.
- [ ] Unpack enough kitchen items for simple meals.
- [ ] Keep your essentials bag accessible until you are settled.

Check Your Belongings

- [ ] Look over furniture and larger items as you settle in.
- [ ] Open important or fragile boxes promptly.
- [ ] Keep all moving paperwork together.
- [ ] Contact Warner's promptly if you have a question or concern.

Finish Utilities & Address Changes

- [ ] Confirm utilities are operating properly.
- [ ] Complete internet and other service installations.
- [ ] Update accounts that still use your old address.
- [ ] Confirm mail forwarding is working.

Unpack Room by Room

- [ ] Concentrate on one useful space at a time.
- [ ] Use box labels to keep belongings in the correct rooms.
- [ ] Avoid opening every box at once.
- [ ] Set aside items you discover you no longer need.

Boxes & Packing Materials

- [ ] Break down empty cartons as you unpack.
- [ ] Keep reusable packing materials together.
- [ ] Recycle or dispose of materials appropriately.
- [ ] Clear empty boxes regularly so they do not become new clutter.

Settle In

- [ ] Prioritize the rooms and items you use most.
- [ ] Allow time for adjustments during the first few days.
- [ ] Finish any remaining address or service changes.
- [ ] Take time to get comfortable in your new surroundings.

Warner's Tip
You do not have to unpack everything immediately. Start with the rooms and belongings you use most, then work through the rest at a manageable pace.

This checklist is a general planning aid. Your move may require additional steps depending on your home, destination, schedule and services.
